

THE 1981-82 GREYHOUND ANNUAL STAFF WOULD LIKE TO PRESENT THIS YEAR'S ANNUAL MEMORIES '82

Absent from picture—Sheri Sextro

We, the Senior Class of 1982, would like to take this opportunity to dedicate our annual to our parents, without whom none of this would be possible. We know that we have all caused you many headaches and trouble, but we also hope that there will be many more happy times to come, and that whatever we do, you will be proud of us, and love us, because we love you.

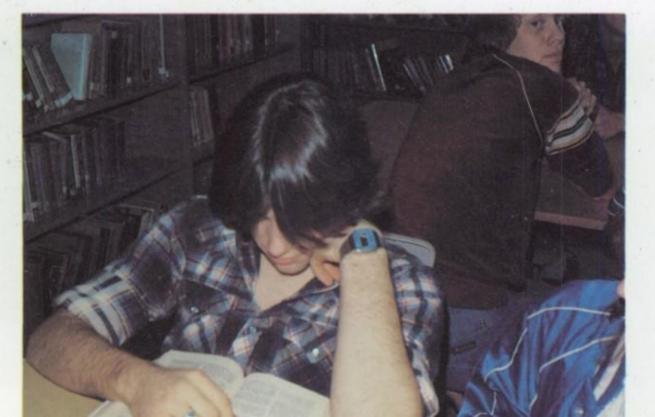

"Bad joke, Sandy!"

"Knock it off, Kim!"

"Troy Davis studying!"

"Do you really study that hard, Steve?"
"Hello? Is this the Lonesome Lover's Hot-line."

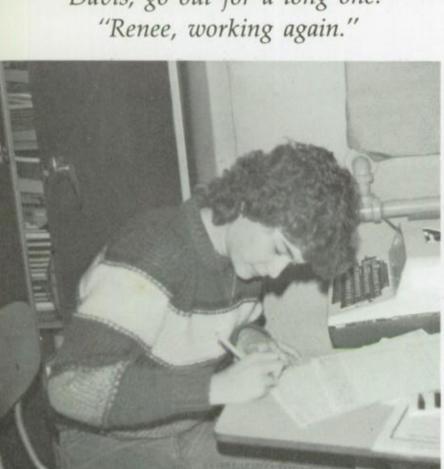

"Now where did I put that book on Chevys?"

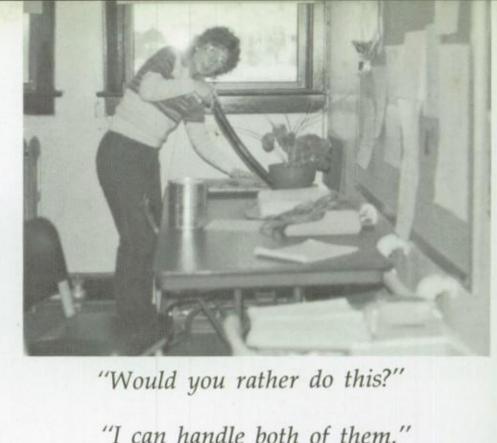

"Davis, go out for a long one."

"The TALL and MIGHTY."

"No Mrs. Keuck, I'm going home now."

"I can handle both of them."

"Dan Greder smiling!"

"Did you hear the one about the . . . "

"This is my prom Date."

"It wasn't that funny MIKE!"

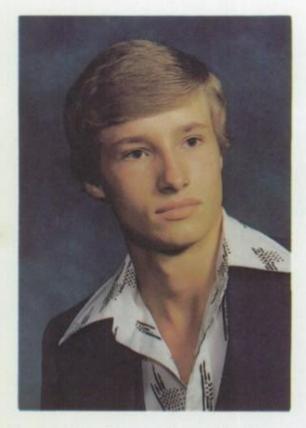

"Eat your heart out Tom Selleck"

"Line them up, and shoot them down."

"No, I'm not having fun."

MEMORIES

To kindergarten we started, The year was nineteen sixty-nine. First grade was spent With Michael taped to the desk. Second grade was a new thing Arion and all. Third grade we didn't starve Eating cookies and cake by the ton. Sure seemed odd, Mrs. Weber retired just after us. Fifth grade we windily spent Tooting our horns for the big band sound. As sixth graders we ruled, The big people of elementary school. Junior high was a switch No more recesses to play, Running to and from each class, And talking in study hall. To high school we started The brave little freshman of '79. As sophomores we could only dream Of that far away day in 1982. As juniors we frantically worked Putting on the best prom we knew. At last our senior year! Never thought we'd see the day. Our float wasn't a big success. Prom wasn't bad. But we know this school Will never be the same Without the great and mighty seniors Of nineteen eighty-two.

Dan Greder—"This had better be important!"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Randy Beam, do will to the following: to Mark G. I leave my ability to hook up my stereo correctly; to Rick and Byron, I leave my experience, to ride at Timber Ridge; to Lori I leave the fun times of the past and the dreams of the future. Last, but not least, I leave to my parents a big thank you for all the support they gave me through the years.

I, Chari Carstens, do hereby will the following: to Theresa and Susie another fun year of P.E.; to Byron Lyman another girl to pick on after I'm gone; to Danette I leave our memories of Pom-Pon and wish her a happy future; to Brenda I leave our memories of Pom-Pon and thank her for always saying something sweet; to Lori H. I thank her for her vote of confidence; to Randy Block I leave my locker (so he can be right by Tracy); to Robin and Susie our memories of working with clay in art; to Mike Houston, the cutest and sweetest Freshman, lots of fun and exciting times in high school; to Candace, Jerry, Tammy, Larry, and Gary a fun and memorable time in school. I wish Eurisha Rae lots of luck in her following thirteen years at Dow City; to the next Family Living Class I leave all our talks of . . . SEX . . "I said it, Miss Haschel!!!" to Denise I leave the memories of our childhood, I wish they could have lasted; to Sandy our memories of homecoming; to the sweetest escort of them all, Danny Greder, I thank him for supporting me during those last few seconds; to Mike Beam I leave the memories of the memories we remembered as we danced as King and Queen; to the Office Procedures Class the ability to become a good secretary (although we may never make it); to the Senior Class of '82 a wonderful future filled with the memories of the past; to this school a special thanks for letting me be a part of it after I let go; to lackie Schultz thanks for trying to make it work; to a wonderful set of parents, I thank them and love them for everything; to my two wonderful sisters and two brothers-in-law a happy life together. And finally to you, Terry, I leave all the hopes and dreams of tomorrow and the memories of the past.

I. Sandy Carstens, being of worn-out mind, and what used to be a physically fit body do hereby will the following: to Mike B. and Joe H. I leave all of my pens and pencils since they stole all of them anyway; to Chari C. I leave all of the lockers that we have shared (book locker, gym locker, coat locker) and all of our talks in government; to Sheri S. all the memories of the things that we have done that we would like to forget; to Denise J. the ability to read my lips in Mr. Faltinson's room; to Renee, I leave the memories of driver's training, and basketball (trying to decide whether we are forwards or guards); to Terri C. my lab partner, the ability to do a chemistry experiment, since we never did any of them, and all of the talks we had instead; to Jodi D. my ability to type, cook, and sew; to Lisa L's teachers the ability to not let Lisa rap you around her finger; to my little sis, Donna K., my softball postion and any privileges that come with being my sis, including someone to talk to or ask favors of when needed; to Margaret P. I leave all of our talks and my sister privileges; to Donna K. and Margaret P. my ability to keep a straight face so that you can act when you are guilty; to Mr. Anderson, two more fantastic P.E. students, like Renee and I were; to Ms. Hashe, thanks for making some classes in school fun and worthwhile; to Betty S. a special thank you for helping me make it through high school; and last, but not least, to the Senior Class of '82 good luck in the future, and I hope all of your dreams come true, but whatever you do never forget the special times, dreams, and memories that we have shared.

I. Dan Greder, being of sound mind and body to match do hereby bequeath the following: to Lisa Langenfeld, all the knowledge that I picked up during my year in Physics. It should last her a couple of days; to Terry C. I leave the old Dodge, because anything is better than the Arrow pickup; to Deb Pritchard all the good times we had at those "great" pep rallies; to Chari Carstens the dance I owe her from Homecoming night; to anyone who takes Accounting the mental telepathy some of us used on homework; to Brenda Baak, I leave my ability to walk down the hall without saying a word; and to Mark Head, I leave my comb in case his should bannen to wear out. case his should happen to wear out.

I, Laurie Hard, being of sound mind and so-so body do hereby will the following: to Pam our friendship which has meant so much to me over the years, also all of our little, long talks on the phone on Saturday mornings; to Brenda Baak, I will my nickname "Grape Ape" since she likes it so much!, to Sandy, all the teasing and hard times and the name Blue Lu, for which I will never be able to repay her; to Lisa L. the so-so time we had over the summer at Maryville, and my job as editor of the annual next year. Hope you enjoy it as much as I do; to Ronda and Travis the great time I had on the annual for the next two years. Keep up the good work you two! to Mrs. Kueck, a great and hard a working Business Machines Class next year! to Mrs Moore one of the best annual staffs she'll ever have again! to Dawn and Cindy the great times in study hall and at the football games; to all my cousins who have yet to finish at Dow City all the fun in the world in your high school years! to my baby sis, Tricia, enjoy your next nine years and have a great time in your four high school years, enjoy them as much as I did; and last, but not least, to Mom and Dad who have given me so much help over the last thirteen years a great big Thanks and also I would like to dedicate this annual to them. dedicate this annual to them.

I. Denise "jet" Jetter, being of feeble mind and body of "Dolly Parton" do hereby bequeath the following: to all my classmates all the great times we've had in the past and the best of luck for the future years; to Brenda Baak, a right hook; to Cindy K. the ability to get along wigh Renee; to Thereas A. all the nickles I gave her; to Susie R. "one of those night'; to Terri C. the weekend we never had and my Drake Relays shirt; to Lisa L. the ability to tell a joke without screwing it up; to Kathy A. all the great times at our track meets, the baby oil, the hot stuff in her hair and my track shoes minus about 8 sizes; to Twila M. the ability to stay on her feet wbile trying to impress good-looking guys; to Hugo, a good long scream; to Freda, the ability to do the warm-up exercises in choir since we never did last year; to Donna, Margaret, Nancy, and Kathy, all the fun they can muster up for their final two years of school and the ability to run the halls to keep "Big Dave" on his toes; to Mrs. Coon, a big thanks for making her class a fun one; to Mr. Sliefert, an Advanced Math Class easy enough so people with my intelligence will be able to struggle through the review chapter; to the "Mantino Five" that fun day in May; to Renee, all our great talks with our two BEST friends from Denison and the fun times we had after the football games last year; to Danny, the Presidency of the United States in 1996, providing I can be First Lady; to Chair, the "SKIRT", need I mention more Chair; to Pat, Dan, Trent, and Troy that they can find somebody else to Benny Hill on; to Steve A. the fair I burned off in chemistry; to Troy D. another GTO; to Sandy, all our pig and bull days in chemistry and every other class; to Laurie H. that someday she'll be a world famous photographer; to Sheri, all our great times and our long talks in our senior year, the ability to every once in a while throw a four or five lettered word into our conversation, and always the NUMBER I spot; and last, but not least, I will this annual to Dad and Mom

I, Trent Kahl, being of skinny body and unused mind will the following: to Deb, a broken Red Lantern dish; to Mike S. my sun glasses, since you've got them anyway; to Margaret Popp another year of walking beans and a tape recorder to record all the things the McCutchens have to say; to Donna K. those days when — oh, it's just a tad bit hot out; to Terry Case a hoe; I will my height to my niece and nephew, Bobbie Jo and Robbie; my basketball ability to Bill Wright; to Rich T. my go-cart and my smoked windows; to Mary T my teddy bear since she likes it so much; to Mom all the patience it took to get me through school.

I, Pam North, being of little mind and short body hereby leave the following: to my sister Deb my quiet ways, my seat on the bus to Ricky Krueger; to my friend Laurie the memories of the dreams we shared in Jr. High; to Mrs. Keuck as much SES help as Chari and I were this year; to my friend Kim I lend an ear to her because I've talked hers off with all my troubles; to the Homecoming Queen and King candidates the memories of going to Carroll; to my special love I leave the great memories of the past, present, and future together, and to all my Senior Classmates the hope of the future.

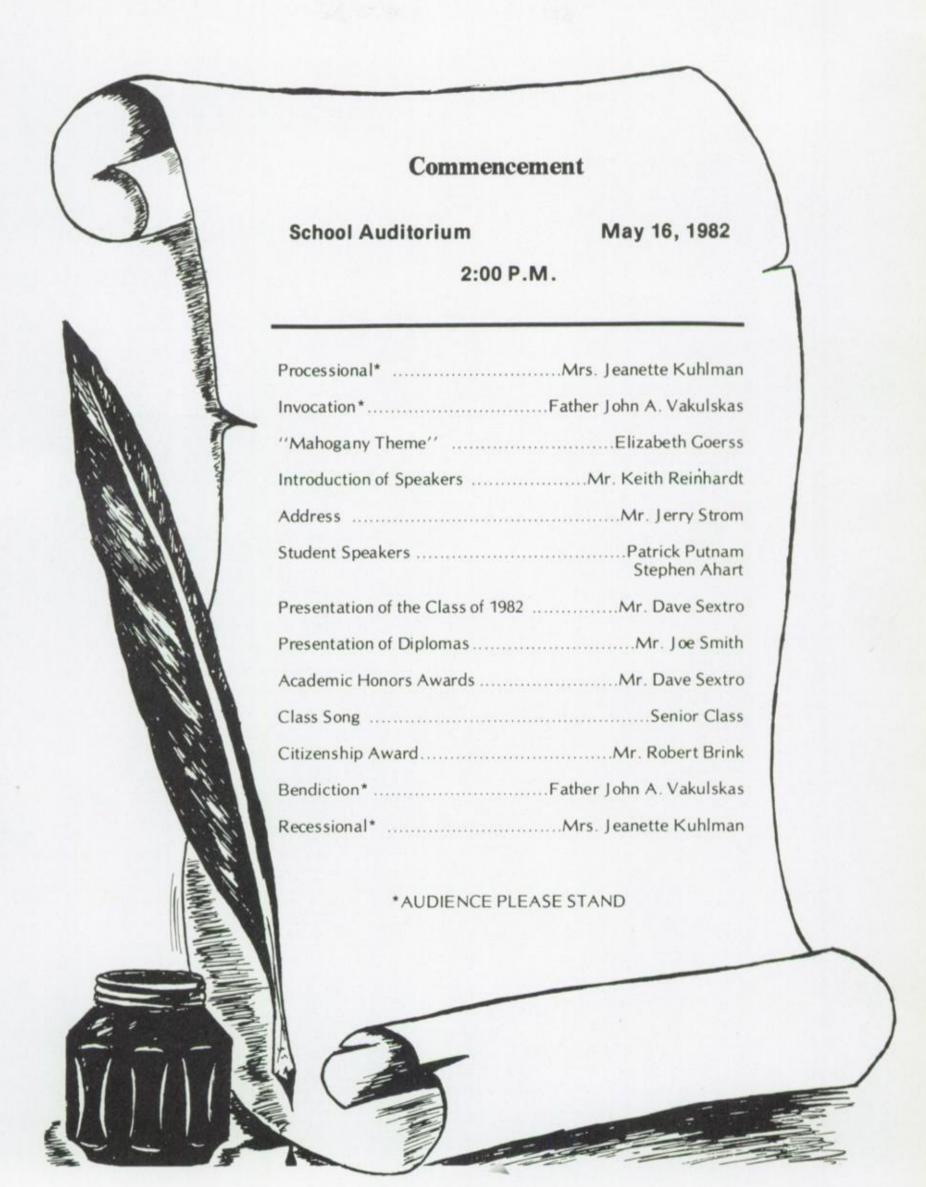

I, Deb Pritchard, being of a sound, witty mind full of fast comebacks and body covered with Red Lantern's latest fashions, do hereby will the following: To a few members of the community, a perfect Homecoming for next year since they didn't have one this year. HA HA. To Kim, Chari, Sandy, and Pam, the memory of being queen candidates; to Pat, my escort, the memory of homecoming. You were a great escort; to all my Roseamm oseannadanna fans, an autographed album; to Mr. Harmen, thanks for all of your help and many happy years of Skit Night. To my brothers and sisters, Shannon, Shanna, and Danny, good luck in high school, and especially to my little brother Kelly, who is very special to me, my love and support forever. To my brothers, Mike and Joe, thanks for being there wben I needed you! To Tones and Kriminal, all the fun Kim and I had in school. To Kim Twig, the memories of all the crazy and fun things we did in school, out of school, and the day we got tatooed. To Dan, Trent, and Pat, the memory of 7th hour study hall and all the fun we had at pep meetings. To everyone at the Red Lantern, thanks for all the fun, support, and friendship we shared while working. I would like to give special thanks and an extra hug of appreciation to Jerry Kennedy for making everything just a little bit brighter. To Doug and Doyle Merritt, lots of fun in school and a new person to beat on besides me. I leave my most prized possession, the VEGA, to that Chevy Garage in the sky. To my Stepdad, Sonny, Thanks for all of your support and boring lectures at 4:00 in the morning. To Donavon, the memory of all the happiness and fun we shared for the last two years and hopes for a bright future. To my dad, the memories and love that will never die. To Mom, I not only wish to dedicate this annual, but the memories, love, and every thought we shared. Thanks MOM, for just being you!!!!!!!! being you!!!!!!!!

I, Renee Reitz, being of perfect mind and body, hereby bequeath the following: Kenny shall receive one date and my booby-trapped car; to Barry I leave my ability to be serious, part of the time; to Denise my regular timing; to Sheri my hearing ability so Terry (or whoever) doesn't miss the best parts of the show and also my limited vocabulary; to Sandy my horse-shoe throwing ability since she has almost as much as I do; to the three persons just previously stated I leave all the great times we had in high school; to Dan I leave all the great lab days and broken test tubes; to Donna my pom-pon abilities and all the great times we'ev had in everything; to Jon H. I leave any girl whose father won't kill him for eloping with her. Everything else I have is probably not worth giving away so I shall keep it for my-self.

I, Sheri Sextro, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following: to Micheal Beam, I leave my collection of love letters from Hawaii; to Danny Greder, the ability to let me talk; to Troy Davis, another GTO, so Denise and I can take the top down; to Rich Thomsen, I leave our famous tunnel between our houses; to Jim Hast, the ability to make a quick choice; to Denise, Renee, and Sandy, I leave all of the fun times and friendship we've shared; to just Denise, I leave all of our early morning chats; to Chari Carstens I leave the ref in the pink towel, (I get the other one); to Susie Rob I leave the night Susie, Terry, and I went out for pizza (and the stop on the road); to Steve Ahart another trip to Detroit; to Jackie "George" Thomsen I leave a new nickname of her choice; to Terry I leave the tongue of my shoe for his old football shoes, the ability to not flinch while being tickled, and all of the fun and friendship we've shared; to my little sister Beth, I leave all the luck in the world to get through your last years of school; to brother Ry, all the years of school ahead of him and the determination to get through them; to Mom, a big "Thank-You" for always being there when I needed you, and Dad for putting up with me all these years. Last, but definitely not least, to the halls of DC-A I leave the memory of the class of 1982.

I, Michael Sliefet, being of excellent mind and battered and bruised body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Randy B. my left knee so he'll have a set that works right; to Terry C. I leave a dozen cheeseburgers, the ability to sweet talk his Dad into buying him a car and forking over the cash, and also the ability to hold onto the Buicks; to Lisa L an insane asylum survival kit so she'll be able to retain her sanity in Physics next year; to Troy D. all the money in the world so he'll finally be able to pay off his loans; to each of my sisters I leave four wonderful years of high school; to the underclassmen I leave the ability to get along with my Dad, Yes, Folks it is possible for a select few; and lastly I would like to Thank Mom and Dad for having the time and patience to help me get through high school.

I, Kim Twig, being of small body and messed up mind, do hereby will the following: to Freda Hinkledorf, a house, because her sad stories about living in a barn just break my heart; to Carrie H. I leave the memories of all the fun we've had at lunch; to Pam N. I leave my brother, Aaron; to Boozie, I leave my brother, Mark (Take good care of 'em girls!!); to My Bud and Jon Houston, I leave a picture of my tatoo, since they never got the pleasure of seeing it; to Deb P. all the great times we've had in and out of school, especially the ones in Denison on the Northern side of Main Street; to her Mom, Donna, my tatoo, so she can look at it and see what kind of things her daughter can talk me into; to my little sister, Krystal, I leave my locker #18 and my homecoming Royalty; to Barry Brady, Deb P. and I would like to leave him the wonderful memories of the Barry Brady song; to Mr. Faltinson, I leave a piece of cheese at the bottom of his shoe; to R.K. the memories of the few times we've spent together and hopes for many more in the future; Last, but not least, to my best friend forever, Mary, all the great times we've spent together in Denison with Ethel. Never forget Waylon!! and our dreams of driving a semi as partners. Best of luck to you, Mary, and thanks for being there when I needed someone.

Early morning and late afternoon
Were filled for each and every girl
Practicing hard on next week's routine.
Some one new prepared the moves
Hoping it would be ready for the upcoming game.
Football games were cold;
basketball wasn't bad.
People may have laughed,
But still we had fun.
